FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

As we celebrate the 144th Anniversary of Brown Baptist, my heart is filled with gratitude. For 144 years, God has faithfully sustained this church and allowed Brown to be a place where lives are changed, families are strengthened, the Gospel is proclaimed, and a difference is made in our community and around the world.

Brown's history is a testimony of God's faithfulness.

As I reflect on this incredible journey, I am reminded that we did not get here by ourselves. We stand on the shoulders of faithful men and women who prayed, served, sacrificed, gave, and believed in what God could do through Brown. Their faithfulness helped shape the church we know today.

And now, we are the stewards of this legacy.

As we continue through 2026 — The Year of Management, our anniversary gives us a powerful reminder that everything God has placed in our hands must be managed with care and intentionality. We are not only celebrating what God has done—we are preparing for what He will do next.

We must manage our time, our talents, our treasure, and our testimonies so that the next generation will inherit a church that is strong, faithful, and ready to fulfill its Kingdom assignment.

I am especially grateful to God for the honor of serving as Pastor of Brown Missionary Baptist Church. For 37 years, God has allowed me to walk alongside this congregation, and I remain humbled by the privilege. Together, we have witnessed countless lives transformed, families restored, souls saved, and doors opened for ministry.

But after 144 years, our story is far from over.
There are still lives to reach.
There are still families to strengthen.
There are still young people to equip.
There are still communities to serve.
There are still generations to impact.

As we celebrate this anniversary, I encourage you not simply to look backward with gratitude, but to look forward with faith. The same God who kept Brown for 144 years is the God who will lead us into the future.

Let us celebrate our history.
Let us honor those who came before us.
Let us faithfully manage what God has entrusted to us.
And let us continue the mission God has given Brown: Changing Lives and Making a Difference.

Happy 144th Anniversary, Brown!

To His Glory,

Fixing My Past!
