Pastor Bartholomew & Mrs. Valarie Orr

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

As we enter the month of July, we pause to reflect on both the blessings of freedom and the responsibility that comes with it. This year, our nation celebrates America's 250th Birthday—a historic milestone reminding us of the sacrifices made for the freedoms we enjoy today. While our country has faced challenges throughout its history, we thank God for His grace, His provision, and the opportunity to continue striving toward unity, justice, and hope for all people.

As believers, we understand that true freedom is ultimately found in Jesus Christ. Scripture reminds us in Galatians 5:1, "It is for freedom that Christ has set us free." While we celebrate the birth of a nation, we also celebrate the freedom, salvation, and purpose we have through our relationship with Him.

Here at Brown, we are also focusing our attention on something incredibly important—our NextGen Youth Ministry. If we are going to properly manage what God has entrusted to us during this Year of Management, we must intentionally invest in the next generation. Our children and youth are not just the future of the church—they are the church right now.

I am grateful for the leaders, volunteers, parents, and mentors who continue pouring into our young people spiritually, emotionally, and academically. We are committed to building a generation that knows God, loves people, and boldly lives out their faith.

As a church family, let us continue creating spaces where our youth feel seen, supported, encouraged, and empowered to grow in Christ. The seeds we plant today will produce fruit for generations to come.

Summer is also a time when many families travel, take vacations, and enjoy time away. While we encourage you to rest and make memories with your loved ones, I want to challenge every member of Brown to worship strong all summer long. If you are in town, make worship at Brown a priority each weekend. If you are traveling, stay connected and join us virtually.

This July, while fireworks light up the skies across our nation, my prayer is that the light of Christ will shine even brighter in our homes, our communities, and especially in the hearts of our young people.

To His Glory,
